

ARRANGEMENTS ARE MADE FOR INSTITUTES HELD IN COUNTY

Two Agriculture Institutes to Be Held
In Mason County During April
—Arrangements Completed Today.

Mason county students of agriculture as well as Mason county's progressive farmers will have an opportunity to hear some of the country's best agricultural experts at two institutes to be held in Mason county on April 14th and 15th at Mayslick and Rectorville.

Arrangements for these institutes were completed today. Mr. James Speed, of Louisville, authority on all agricultural subjects and editor of the Southern Agriculturist and Inland Farmer, was here today and completed all arrangements with County School Superintendent Turnipseed and County Agent George Kirk. More details and the programs will be announced later.

It is the purpose of those behind the movement to have several such institutes in several counties in Kentucky and other Southern states during the spring months. The meetings will be held in the school buildings and certain lectures will be illustrated with moving pictures. Several of the experts from the experiment station will speak and the Champion Boy Corn Grower of Kentucky as well as the champion of the girls' canning club of the state will be on the program.

Mr. Speed said today that the program will be the best possible. It will occupy two days at both points in this county.

MANY HEAR FIRST SERMON BY EVANGELIST AT REVIVAL

Large Audience Greeted Dr. John E. Vines at First Baptist Church—Interest Is Shown and a Great Meeting Is Expected.

There was a splendid audience at the First Baptist church last night to greet Dr. John E. Vines, of Virginia, the evangelist during the Baptist revival and they were greatly pleased with the service.

The first subject discussed by the evangelist was "Are You Building Right?" In a most impressive manner he told what was and what was not the proper way to build a spiritual edifice. This evening his subject will be "Escape For Your Life," and the public is cordially invited to hear this subject discussed. Dr. Vines is a man of strong personality, and preaches in such language and in such manner that none can fail to understand thoroughly everything he says. From the experience of those attending last night it appeared that the large auditorium will be filled this evening.

The music under the leadership of Mr. H. Evan McKinley is a great feature of this revival. The chorus choir rendered its first special number at last night's service and will render many during the series. The platform has been enlarged so as to care for the constantly growing chorus. Mr. McKinley is teaching the choir and the audience many pretty new revival hymns and great interest is being shown in this feature.

Services will be held daily at 2:30 and 7:15 p. m. The afternoon service will be one hour in duration.

SCHOOL INSPECTOR HERE PLANNING NORMAL SCHOOL

State Rural School Supervisor J. Virgil Chapman Here Today In Conference.

Prof. J. Virgil Chapman, of Frankfort, Supervisor of Rural Schools in Kentucky, is in Maysville today for a conference with Superintendent W. J. Caylenger, of the City Schools and Superintendent George H. Turnipseed, of the county schools relative to holding a Teachers' School of Instruction at the Maysville High School during the summer.

Because of the crowded conditions at the State Normal Schools and because of the attempt being made by the State school heads to make the expense on teachers as low as possible, plans are under way to hold normal schools in various county seats throughout the state and Maysville has been selected as one of those points in which to establish a normal school.

If enough teachers in Mason and adjoining counties will agree to attend the Mason County Normal School, arrangements will be made for the holding of such a school in the local high school. Details will be discussed at today's conference.

First Presbyterian Church, of Houston, Texas, Honors Former Maysvillian During His Lifetime.

The venerable Rev. Joseph M. Evans, who has passed the four-score mark and is still in active service, has charge of a mission church in Houston, Texas. He has been signally honored by the action of the pastor and elders of the First Presbyterian church of Houston, which established the mission church in having the name changed to "Evans Memorial Presbyterian Church." This action having been communicated to him in the following letter from the clerk of the session:

"It was the unanimous opinion of those present that it was a worthy and well-earned honor to be bestowed upon you, not waiting until after you have passed to your reward, but giving you the pleasure of knowing their esteem and appreciation of your services during your present life."

COUNTY OFFICIALS OFFER ADDITIONAL REWARDS

Woodford County Officials Offer $200 For Arrest of Each Mob Member Bringing Total to $700 Each.

A reward of $200 each for the apprehension and conviction of members of the mob which on March 13 took Richard James, negro, from the Woodford county jail and lynched him, has been offered by Woodford county officials. County Judge E. Mulcahy has announced. The reward, together with the rewards of $500 each offered by Governor Morrow, makes a total of $700 each offered, or an aggregate of $35,000. The mob consisted of fifty members. It is reported.

Judge Mulcahy says he is still conducting his investigation. He said he had learned a number of citizens with out learning anything.

In posting the reward Judge Mulcahy said: "The reward is being offered by Woodford county authorities to aid in the arrest and conviction of the members of the mob. The authorities of Woodford county are not and have never been in sympathy with mob violence."

MISSSES CALLAHAN WRITE SONG FOR IRISH FUND

Louisville Women Write Beautiful Irish Ballad To Be Sold For Relief Fund.

We are in receipt of a copy of "The Isle of the Shamrock," words and music by the Misses Callahan, of Louisville, Ky. The air is timely, of remarkable sweetness, and although out of the beaten track of the average song which is in "everybody's whistle" it will quickly win its way to popularity, and unlike the ordinary "popular song," will prove to be of lasting substantial merit. The music is by Miss Edith Callahan, a student of the best conservatories not only in the East but in Europe, and who is therefore well qualified to create something good in a musical line. The words, a real literary gem, are vibrant with timely, patriotic outbursts, and are expressive of the sentiments of all to whom the Irish cause is dear, for which cause the entire proceeds of sale of the music is to be given. Lovers of the good music will supply themselves with a copy of "The Isle of the Shamrock."

Miss Edith Callahan is a daughter of Col. P. H. Callahan, whose strong personality has charmed a large circle of Maysville friends, and who on several occasions during the reconstruction period, has addressed large audiences here on the relations of labor and capital, which relations, being himself an employer of many men, he has closely and sympathetically to the working men, studied.

POULTRY ASSOCIATION RE-ELECTS OFFICERS AND BOOSTS REDS

Mason County Rhode Island Club Is Formed and Will Donate 100 Set-tings of Pure Bred Eggs to Encourage Standardization.

One of the most interesting meetings of the Mason County Poultry Association ever held was held at the Farm Bureau building last night and the progress of the organization during the past year was gone into very thoroughly. Mr. A. S. Chapin, poultry expert of the State Experiment Station, was the guest of the club and encouraged them greatly by his report on his inspection of Mason county flocks during the past two days.

Mr. Chapin says that there are now twenty times as many pure bred chickens in Mason county as there were five years ago when the Poultry Association was organized and the credit for this splendid record is given by Mr. Chapin to the Mason County Poultry Association.

The association re-elected their old officers for the ensuing year. Mr. George A. Dodson is president, Mr. Frank G. Hunsicker, Treasurer, and Mr. George Kirk is Secretary and Show Superintendent. The association members also discussed plans for the Poultry Show at the Bluegrass Fair, Lexington, which will be in charge of the Mason county association this year. Messrs. Kirk, Hunsicker, Calvert, Conrad, Purnell and Dodson became members of the Rhode Island Red Club of America and organized a Mason county branch to be known as the Mason County Rhode Island Red Club. The Mason County Poultry Association then donated 100 settings of eggs to this newly organized club to be distributed to reliable residents of Mason county to encourage pure bred poultry.

The only condition to the distribution of these eggs will be that those receiving settings will agree to return to the club one pullet free from disqualification which will be sold at public auction at the fall show. Mr. Chapin presented in figures the value of pure bred poultry in Mason county. He showed that breeders of pure bred Reds are now selling their eggs to hatcheries at $21.50 per case while the market price for all kinds of eggs in Maysville now is but $6.40 per case showing a difference of $15.20 a case in favor of the pure bred flocks.

Mrs. H. E. Lewis and daughter, Miss Violet, of New York, are the guests of Mrs. Henry E. Pogue and family, of the West End.

DR. McKEEVER, CIGARETTE'S FOE, SAYS A DOLLAR IS ENOUGH FOR MARRIED COUPLE.

Dr. McKeever, who bears the label in the Sun of "savant," which is something we hesitate to call him, declares that one American dollar is quite enough for any married couple to start house-keeping on. Dr. McKeever is the Kansas professor who is pushing the anti-cigarette law at Topeka.

Dr. McKeever is the Lucy Page Gaston of the Sunflower state. He is entirely wrong on the dollar suggestion, just as wrong as he is about tobacco. If a man and woman face the parson and summon him to tie the knot that makes them one, and the trembling bridegroom has only a dollar in his pocket, he has not even enough to pay the preacher. Custom demands that the man who joins a loving couple shall receive at least ten dollars and as much more as he can extort from the husband. Then there are a wedding trip and a house to furnish and provisions to buy—for married ones must eat—and they must have clothing, too. A dollar would not pay for the wedding breakfast.

Dr. McKeever seems to drift away from the subject, for he says, "tell me how a man spends his leisure hours and I will tell you what kind of a man he is." A man who married on a dollar should have no leisure hours; he should keep moving all the time in order to earn more money. He would have to do so, in fact, or let the bride go back to the home folks for something to eat.

If a bridegroom smokes, says Dr. McKeever in his advice to brides, "help him to stop." Again we differ with this savant. If a man has a mere dollar, he will not have to be helped to stop smoking; he will not smoke for the reason that he has no money with which to buy tobacco.

Our advice to a young woman is: Do not marry a man who has only a dollar and do not help your husband—when you get one—to "stop smoking."—New York Telegraph.

THE WORKINGMAN AND HIS SUNDAY.

The workingman who works himself up into a state of enthusiasm and frenzy in favor of the anti-Sunday delusions of the day, is nothing less than a simpleton.

Behind nearly every anti-Sunday movement you will somewhere find a financier, or a captain of industry, or somebody with no thought in his head except to make money. Every time one of them wins, his success compels some group of men or company of men to work on Sunday. And the profits he makes puts it into the hands of a dozen other greedy capitalists and employers to do likewise.

Every new "recreation" condemns a certain number of people to work. The whole thing hits the worker first. Does not the workingman see this when he pays his little fee to enjoy a certain so-called "recreation"? If he does see it, how does he know that he will not soon be in the same boat as the fellows who have to labor for his pleasure? If people will work for "recreation" profiteers, why can't other people be compelled after a while to labor in industries that do not provide "recreation" for the public.

The "day of rest" is too important to the workingman—the workingman above all others—for him to monkey with it. Why play into the hands of the mad money makers who would just as lief keep him on the job Sunday as look at him.

THE CLASH OF SCIENCE AND ART.

It is distressing to have an accepted idea discredited by new evidence. For fifty years discourses on living have cited the case of Charles Darwin, who had a keen delight in beauty in his youth, but allowed his absorption in science to kill his esthetic sense in his older years. "Science," said the discourses, "is evidently hostile to the enjoyment of poetry, pictures and scenery. Beware of science, if you would keep your joy in living."

Now comes Leonard Huxley, the son of Darwin's intimate friend, Thomas H. Huxley, with an article on "The Home Life of Charles Darwin." It wasn't science but ill health that caused Darwin to lose his interest in beautiful things, Dr. Huxley says. For forty years Darwin knew hardly a well day. He suffered constantly from nausea, and had to limit all his activities. Even listening to music frequently caused such a nervous upset that he could not sleep. It takes health to get out of life all it has to offer, and lessons drawn from semi-invalidism are hardly of general application. Darwin's chief scientific friends, according to Dr. Huxley, gave full play to their esthetic faculties.

Evidently the "horrid example" of Darwin isn't necessarily evidence of the clash between science and art.—Kansas City Star.

A WANDERING MINSTREL.

A movement is on foot to buy the farm and homestead, in Kentucky where Stephen Foster wrote "My Old Kentucky Home," and some of his other melodies. The plan, which originated in the Kentucky Legislature, is to appeal particularly to Kentuckians for funds, but the Nation will at least look on approvingly.

It lacks but five years of a century since Foster was born in Pennsylvania and he continued less than forty years in the flesh; but he is more alive today than many a man who was reckoned among the mighty in his day and generation, though he did nothing but drift about writing simple songs and always spending more money than he earned. But his melodies are nearer the musical heart of the people than those of any other American have ever been.

The world has always had a plentiful supply of men whose erudition in music sufficed for the constructions of works correct to the last note and intricate beyond comprehension, but it never has had enough melodists.—Detroit Free Press.

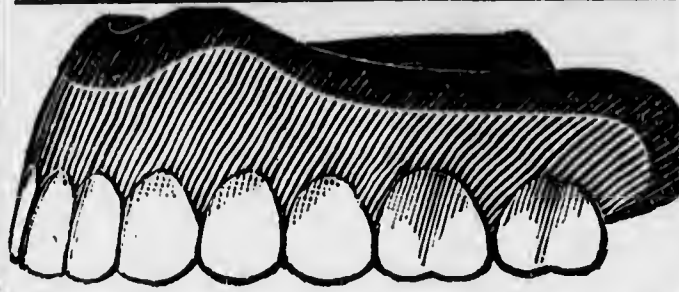

Panama and Costa Rica boiled over and simmered down all in one day. A pity the big nations can't get over their war fever with the same readiness.

STEADY MARCHING.

A number of newspapers who want the United States to go into the league of nations are just now filling their columns with war scares. Neither Mr. Harding nor the Republican Congress looks easy to stampede.

If there is no big revolution in Russia against the Bolsheviks as reported, there ought to be.

OWN YOUR HOME
EXPOSITION TO BE HELD IN CHICAGO

Thousands Expected to Visit Great
Home Exposition to Begin
March 26th in City of Chicago.

Chicago, Ill. — A hundred thousand people, most of them prospective home-owners, are expected to attend the first annual "Own Your Home" exposition, which will be held at the Coliseum here from March 26 to April 2. The purpose of the exposition is to foster the building and ownership of homes, with a view to relieving the press bousing emergency throughout the nation and to quieting the unrest that is often found among people who do not own their homes.

The leading men in business connected in any way with the construction and furnishing of homes are planning the show. A general committee of 160 members has been chosen. Robert H. Sexton is managing director and Henry A. Guthrie is his assistant. The general committee is divided into special committees, each representing a branch of the building industry or furnishing business. Every committee will be allotted a certain space where the exhibits it approves will be shown.

The interior of the Coliseum will present the appearance of a residential subdivision. Trees will rise above the exhibits. Streets, avenues, and boulevards will run between the rows of booths. A fountain will play in Fountain Terrace, in the center of the great hall. Complete houses will be there, set in an appropriate landscape environment and furnished throughout.

One section will be devoted to houses and home sites, under a committee headed by Bartholomew O'Toole, a well-known Chicago Real Estate man, and former regional director of the U. S. Own Your Home campaign. It will include models of houses and apartments, plans of subdivisions, plats, topographical and relief maps, plans for cities, photographs, and transparencies.

EMIGRANTS CHEATED.

The need for some kind of supervision over unauthorized steamship ticket agencies operating among illiterate emigrants, is illustrated by the following item in "The American News," a Russian New York daily: "We have received a letter from three comrades who have left for Russia from Baltimore. They all bought steamship tickets to Libau from a New York agent. Upon arrival at London, they discovered that their steamship tickets are good only to Hamburg. They had to buy additional tickets to Libau."

Half a century ago the custom of washing the bride's feet at a wedding was common in Scotland. It was usually performed by the attendants of the bride-elect on the evening before the marriage ceremony was to be performed.

New York Letter

New York. — At last some attention is being given to the poor shy men in order that they may find a place to eat! Since "the old days," tea rooms have been the dominating form of food place in New York. But they were so filled with women! And the men, driven from under the hospitable roof of the hotel bars, could find no place to eat home. So now, in the shopping-tea-ing district, one large tea room has blazoned forth with the cordial sign, "Special room for gentlemen."

Some income-tax excuses are pretty lame, but one was received on the last day of grace this year which seemed to be as sincere and as sound as it was polite. And it was very polite, indeed. "I am temporarily detained in the Tombs," the letter read, "and it is impossible to make a direct return on income tax for 1920. I request an extension of time. If your ruling is that a tentative return shall be filed at once, kindly send the necessary forms to the above address." "I am wondering," said Internal Revenue Collector Edwards, "whether he wants an extension of time in the Tombs to delay paying his tax, or whether he is one of those conscientious men who made a lot of money during the recent crime wave and believes there should be no delay in giving the government its share. His delinquency, however, will be easily understood and excused by us."

Zona Gale, author of "Miss Lulu Bett," has gone home to Portage, Wisconsin, to work on a new play, incidentally, but primarily to recover her health after having spoken at fifty dinners during her twelve weeks in New York City, breaking all records and coming pretty close to ruining her digestion.

One of the most interesting things about the Exhibition of Independent Artists, now being held at the Waldorf, is the number of works by "part time" artists—men and women whose regular occupation in life is far removed from Art, but who squeeze it into enough of their free hours actually to achieve something. There are paintings on exhibition—good ones, too—by James N. Rosenberg, lawyer, and Louis Ayer and Herman Fischer, physicians, for instance, and Morris Kantor, clothing cutter, Glenn Coleman, traffic cop, Carlton Husche, letter carrier, Emilie Branchard, truck driver, William Coyne, trade paper reporter, and Prosper Invarosi, wall painter.

Did you know that it's actually true that married men save more money than bachelors? I always thought it was just a copy book maxim intended to encourage matrimony. But it's a cold, printed fact—in New York City, at least. And another thing—even the unsavory bachelors save more than bachelor girls! After all the years of tooting us as the thrifty sex! The Savings Bank Association of New York is authority for all this. And they give figures to prove it from typical

OH! MY BACK!

The Expression of Many a Kidney Sufferer in Maysville.

A stubborn backache is cause to suspect kidney trouble. When the kidneys are inflamed and swollen, stooping brings a sharp twinge in the small of the back, that almost takes the breath away. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve sluggish kidneys—relieve aching backs. Ask your neighbors. Here's Maysville proof:

Mrs. H. Jones, 702 East Second street, says: "I well know the value of Doan's Kidney Pills, having used them for disordered kidneys and backache and they cured me of the complaint. My back had been giving me trouble for sometime. There was a dull, nagging pain across the center of my back just over my kidneys. Many a day I had to let my housework go undone as I was feeling so miserable. I had pains in the back of my head and my kidneys weren't acting regularly. As Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family successfully I went to Wood & Son's Drug Store and got three boxes. After using them I was all right. I am glad to recommend Doan's."

Price 60 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Jones had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

How One Woman Helped Another

Foley Kidney Pills are bought in every state in the Union by men and women on the recommendation of those who already have been relieved of kidney trouble and bladder ailments by this sterling family remedy. Comparatively little advertising has been done for Foley Kidney Pills, yet they are well known, and those who know their splendid healing properties never accept an imitation or substitute for the genuine Foley.

Pains Banished; Health Restored
"In September, 1913, I was stricken with lumbago and was unable to turn myself in bed. I was under the care of a physician but obtained no relief. A neighbor brought me a half bottle of Foley Kidney Pills, and she had been similarly afflicted and they had relieved her. So I tried them, and after taking three bottles was well and on my feet. I most heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills. I have never known them to fail."—Mrs. G. H. Ewald, Duncan Mills, Ill.

In the back room of an East Side tenement, three flights up, lives Duke Orloff an dhis bride, the Duchess Olga, waiting hopefully for the counter revolution in Russia to become an accomplished fact, so that they may take a honeymoon trip back home. Orloff has been keeping silent about his dukedom since his arrival in this country, because a large proportion of the population down around his present quarters are shouting loudly for Lenin and Trotsky a great part of their time. But he gave away the secret at the marriage license bureau the other day. The new duchess was Olga Polshewsky, who had lived on an estate adjoining his in the old days in Russia. He has been searching for her ever since he landed here after fleeing from the first revolution. Orloff is carpentering to support himself and his duchess.

At last the scenic painters of the theater are bringing people around to their point of view. Color can do all sorts of things, they have been telling the public, even to turning a dramatic failure into a pocket-filler, just through properly enlivening the audience looking at the scenery. So now the model East View prison is going to try its effect on malefactors. Warden McClellan has announced that the cells are to be repainted and that each prisoner is to choose his own cell-color. To only specification is to be that none is to be sombre. Only bright and cheerful colors will be allowed, for the sake of the psychological effect.

OWENSBORO RAISING FUND TO GET WINTER CURTAINS

Owensboro, Ky. — Owensboro has no zoo, but if plans now being considered here are carried out it will have one for at least the winter season. The owners of a circus which heretofore has wintered in Denver, have decided to abandon that place and are considering Owensboro. The business men of the city are considering a proposition to raise $30,000 to pay half the cost of a five-year lease on winter quarters here. The proposed contract calls for exhibition of the animals.

GUESTS IN AUTOMOBILE WILL NOT GET DAMAGES.

Frankfort, Ky. — Slenora Ortwein, of Covington, who was injured when an automobile in which she was riding collided with an iron telephone pole, will not get damages for her injuries. The Court of Appeals decided that the accident was unavoidable. Fred Dorste, owner and driver of the car, picked up Mrs. Ortwein as she was on her way to work. The car skidded down a hill and smashed into the pole. She sued for $20,000 damages.

MOUNTAIN SCHOOL CHILDREN SACRIFICE FOR THE STARVING

Students of Pine Mountain Settlement School Sacrifice One Meal a Week for Chinese Fund.

Instead of observing self denial week as a means of raising money for the 40,000,000 inhabitants of the famine area in north central China, the pupils of the Pine Mountain Settlement School in Harlan county, will deny themselves one meal a week for a month, thus saving seventeen cents on each meal. Through this saving they already have sent $100 to the China Famine Fund Louisville. This is the gist of a letter from Mrs. Ethel DeLong Zande, received recently by the Rev. Dr. E. Y. Mullins of Louisville chairman of the fund. Dr. Mullins previously issued an appeal throughout Kentucky for the observance of a week of self denial by the omission from each meal of some little food luxury and the money thus saved to be donated to the Chinese.

Mrs. Zande is a member of the executive committee of the Pine Mountain School. Her letter in part follows:

"I want to tell you how heartily our children are carrying out their plan—they voted unanimously to have famelike rations one day a week and their comments are something like this, 'Last week, I weren't any bit hungry at supper time.'"

"One old grandmother in the neighborhood told me how she had coaxed her granddaughter, who is a day pupil in our school to eat an extra breakfast and take more at supper time, but Elsie replied, 'Why granny I can hardly eat at all, thinking of those little Chinese children.'"

"It is touching when we realize how little our children really have and how willing they are to sacrifice that little. The children plan now to carry this campaign of dinnerless Fridays through the month of March and are rejoicing in the numbers of Chinese they can feed through this saving of seventeen cents a day on each meal."

The funds for the starving Chinese which is being raised in Kentucky is gradually growing larger as checks are being received at headquarters from all parts of the state. "Last week," said Dr. Mullins on his return from a week's trip in the south in interest of the China Famine Fund, "I was surprised to note the encouraging returns as the result of self-denial week." The Executive Committee he said realized that every church and Sunday school could no observe this week for many had previously taken the offering and other necessarily had to postpone the collections for this fund to a later date, but the response was liberal and general. Really some surprising collections have been taken in the small church organizations. The State Executive Committee is delighted with the response to the appeal which they have made.

Dr. Mullins said further that "It is the hope of the Executive Committee to organize every county in the state with a county chairman and a small committee of workers so that the appeal may be presented to every organization and brought to the attention of all individuals and citizens of our Commonwealth. He said since it takes considerable time to organize all the counties the committee hopes that the good citizens of each county who are interested in helping the starving Chinese will get together quickly and form their own organizations and advise him or Mr. Jos. Burge, the Treasurer, of their action.

In making contributions to this fund checks should be made payable to Jos. Burge, Treasurer and mailed to the Board of Trade Building, Louisville, Kentucky, or deposited in any bank in Kentucky.

GREAT AWAKENING IN METHODIST CHURCHES HAS BEE REPORTED

Pre-Easter Centenary Evangelistic Campaign in Methodist Churches Brings Great Results.

There is a remarkable religious awakening in the Methodist Episcopal churches throughout the United States as the result of the Pre-Easter Centenary Evangelistic Campaign, according to a report from Area Secretaries to Dr. R. J. Dade, Corresponding Secretary of the Committee on Conservation and Advance.

Dr. C. C. Cissell, Secretary of the Omaha Area reports that there have been 15,000 conversions and over 12,000 have become members of the church. Bishop Homer C. Stuntz of Omaha is leading the Pre-Easter Evangelistic Campaign in Omaha district.

In the Cincinnati Area, Dr. F. I. Johnson, Secretary, reports that 1,156 churches of the area, there have been reported 8,278 conversions from revivals; 3,385 have been received by letter of transfer; and 3,258 have been received in full membership in the church, and that there are at present candidates in training who have not yet been taken into full membership numbering 3,452; a total increase of membership in the Cincinnati area of 10,105. Dr. Johnson says that this indicates that one-third of the churches in the Cincinnati area have reported over 7,000 new members, and over 3,000 received by letters of transfer—a total of 10,000. "Many of those members received by letters of transfer are non-resident members of members whose church letters have been lost," Dr. Johnson says that the Centenary campaign to increase the membership to a per cent., will be full realized if the present increase in membership continues.

Bishop W. F. Anderson of Cincinnati is leading in this remarkable evangelistic campaign in the Cincinnati area.

SLOVAKS BUY FARM LAND.

The Czech-Slovak Colonization Co., with offices in New York City, has taken over the interests of the Slovak Land Development Co., a $100,000 enterprise incorporated in Delaware. The purpose of the new organization is to establish a Czechoslovak colony in Latimer county, Okla., where it is buying up the land previously sold by the government to the former company. This is one of the first colonization schemes promulgated by the Slovaks in America, though the Czechs have established several farm communities in Georgia, Louisiana, and other Southern states.

GREAT GRASS LAND SUBJECT INJUNCTION PLEA.

Lebanon. — A move to have a receiver appointed for a farm bought by G. W. Hughes from J. L. Collin and now in litigation was denied by the court, the plaintiffs advanced the contention that Hughes had gone to Indiana to live and that parties in charge of the farm were preparing to break up grass land for the culture of tobacco. The court held that it was possible for Hughes to live in Indiana and manage the farm without exposing it to injury.

OLD-FASHIONED SORT OF PLAY IS COMING SOON

"Turn To the Right" is a Classic Comedy in Old Fashioned Setting — Has Had a Great Record.

"Turn to the Right!" the great outstanding fun classic of the generation in New York and Chicago, which comes to the Washington Theater for one performance on Thursday night, March 31, is a comedy-drama of the good old-fashioned sort that the fathers and mothers of the present generation of playgoers enjoyed. In producing it John Golden acted upon the assumption that human nature is constructed today on the same lines that it was in decade ago. He was confident that the public had not outgrown its liking for a story that mixes smiles and tears, morals and emotions, romance and the home-made jam of one's far-away childhood into a fragrant and delectable evening's entertainment.

In its introduction of farm and village types, "Turn to the Right!" ranks with Winchell Smith's other great comedy success, "The Fortune Hunter," while in religious spirit it is faintly reminiscent of "Ben Hur." In its prologue and three acts there is never a line or situation to cause a blush, despite the fact that two of its principal characters are nimble-witted crooks. Their regeneration through the Christian influence of an old-fashioned, praying mother provides the underlying theme.

"Turn to the Right!" will be presented here with the original production, exactly as it ran for a solid year in both New York and Chicago. The advance sale will open at Shafer & Watkins Paint Store on next Monday morning, March 28.

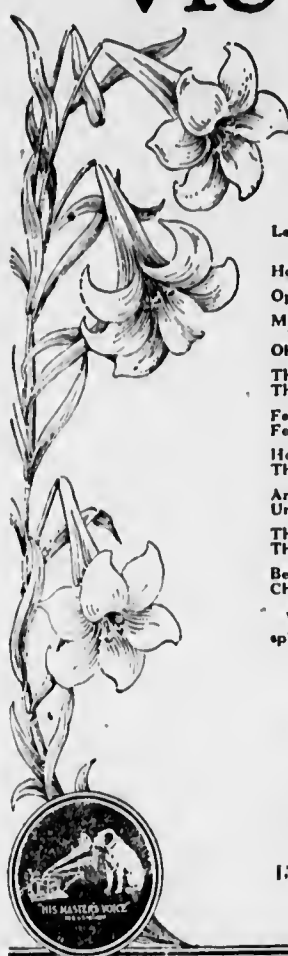

Mr. J. S. Kenny was taken to Lexington this afternoon to enter the state asylum for the insane.

PRIZE-LAYING HENS IN HENDERSON COUNTY.

Lexington, Ky., March 23. — A flock of White Wyandotte hens, 168 in number, owned by Mrs. J. T. Results which have just been summarized by J. Holmer Martin of the college show that the flock produced an average of 15.9 eggs per hen during February, thereby leading the 47 flocks for the second consecutive month.

A flock of 51 Rhode Island Reds owned by Mrs. Eugene Cinton, Boyle county, was a close second, averaging 15.5 eggs per hen for the month. A Christian county flock of 1973 White Leghorns owned by A. J. Culver was third on the list, having produced an average of 15.2 eggs per hen for February.

Suit Seeking Removal of Liquor From Bonded Warehouse Filed in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., March 23. — A suit which, according to Judge W. V. Gregory, United States district attorney, seeks to extend to Government bonded warehouses the recent decision of the United States Supreme Court permitting an owner to remove lawfully acquired whisky from a commercial warehouse to his home, was filed in United States District Court here Tuesday by attorneys for John W. Koller, of Paducah.

The plaintiff seeks to restrain Paul Williams, of Lexington, as prohibition enforcement director for Kentucky, from prosecuting him for removing 16 barrels of whisky he claims to have in a Government bonded warehouse to his home and to require Elwood Hamilton, of Louisville, as collector of internal revenue, to accept tax on the goods customarily paid at withdrawal of goods from bond.

It is claimed that the whisky was purchased before national prohibition became effective and that the plaintiff holds a government receipt for it.
